

Thank you for making the
UBC Blue & Gold
Campaign for Students a success!

You changed their world, now watch them change ours give.ubc.ca/blueandgold

Because of you...

More students can access life-changing experiential learning and educational opportunities.

Pathways and possibilities have opened up for the best and brightest to succeed.

We've accomplished so much together in 5 years!

$211 million +
funds raised

28%
more donor funding available to students

21%
more students supported by donors

"By supporting today's students, we have helped lay the foundation for tomorrow's leaders to shape a better world. The Blue & Gold Campaign for Students ended on March 31, 2022, but its impact is long-lasting and far-reaching, and our efforts to support students continue. Thank you to all who gave."

—Santa J. Ono,
President and Vice-Chancellor,
University of British Columbia

"This scholarship has given me such a deep sense of gratitude for just what post-secondary education can entail. It's shown me how there are always people out there willing to support and to reward hard work."

Sabrina Wang, Land and Food Systems

Presidential Scholars Award recipient

"To have those scholarships and bursaries available, to have those donors that are so giving, it means the world! It's part of the reason why I wanted to go to UBC."

Alex Turpin, Arts

Centennial Scholars Entrance Award recipient

"To donors, thank you so much for everything! To be chosen for this award, the trust and encouragement it represented gave me confidence in myself to pursue my dreams."

Odmaa Bayartsogt, Vancouver School of Economics

Presidential Scholars Award - Hugh M. Brock National Entrance Award recipient

Learn more about the impact of your giving at give.ubc.ca/blueandgold

